

David Cordero Rodriguez

775-682-9148 | staciejenkins@unr.edu | linkedin.com/in/staciemjenkins

Professional Summary

Motivated finance student with hands-on experience in cash handling, reporting, and inventory tracking. Strong analytical mindset with proven ability to work in fast-paced environments, solve problems, and support operational efficiency. Seeking an entry-level finance role to apply financial principles and data-driven decision making.

Education

University of Nevada, Reno — B.S. in Business Administration, Finance (Expected Jun 2029)

Minor: Construction Management

North Valleys High School — Standard Diploma (Jun 2025)

Skills

Financial Reporting, Cash Handling, Data Analysis, Inventory Management, Problem Solving, Communication, Microsoft Excel (basic), Team Collaboration

Experience

Warehouse Associate | JCPenney (Jun 2025 – Aug 2025)

- Improved workflow efficiency by collaborating with team members in a fast-paced environment
- Identified and resolved daily operational issues, supporting productivity and accuracy
- Adapted quickly to new roles, demonstrating flexibility and cross-functional support
- Assisted in communication across language barriers to maintain team coordination

Barista | Coffee Company, Reno, NV (Oct 2024 – May 2025)

- Managed daily cash transactions and prepared accurate cash-out reports
- Handled bank deposits, ensuring accuracy and accountability
- Assisted with inventory tracking and forecasting for future shipments
- Delivered efficient service while multitasking in high-volume environment

Busser | Cafe Central, Reno, NV (Nov 2022 – Oct 2024)

- Supported restaurant operations by improving table turnover and customer satisfaction

- Assisted staff in delivering service efficiently, contributing to overall revenue flow
- Maintained professionalism in a fast-paced, high-volume setting

Certifications & Training

Food and Beverage Certification (2025)